UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE MARCH 5 TRIAL DATE

COMES NOW Defendant Eric McKinney, by and through his undersigned counsel, and for his Motion states:

1. The Court previously set the trial for this matter for its March 5, 2001, calendar period. However, for reasons set forth below, Defendant McKinney prays that the Court will continue it for at least 60 days.

2. The main reason for this is that Defendant McKinney is in the process of having several debriefings with law enforcement agencies and his counsel, with an eye toward a certain resolution of this case. Because of the nature of the debriefings, it will take a few more weeks before this information is finalized.

3. Also, there are certain Motions filed which need to be heard and ruled upon by the U.S. Magistrate Judge. This will also take time. Undersigned counsel only came into this case on January 16, 2001, and is the second attorney on the case. At the last calendar call, the Court will recall that undersigned counsel only agreed to the March 5 calendar call as a courtesy to the prosecutor, who was hoping to get this matter resolved before she went on maternity leave in April.

4. Undersigned counsel spoke to the prosecutor assigned to this case, who stated that the government does not oppose this Motion.

5. Defendant McKinney previously waived his right to a speedy trial, at the last calendar call.

WHEREFORE, Defendant McKinney prays that this Court will grant his UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE MARCH 5 TRIAL DATE.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael Hursey, Esq.
